

HALBRO WEEKLY

A weekly update from the world of Halbro and Raging Bull Sportswear

OFFICIAL KIT SUPPLIER 2021-23

Fergus Farrell, Head of Sales at Raging Bull Sportswear, said: "Partnering with the Rosslyn Park HSBC National Schools 7s makes perfect sense. It was disappointing that the 2020 tournament could not go ahead, but we are in full support for the 2021 competition and beyond. To be linked with the largest schools 7s tournament in the world is really exciting for us as a brand. Raging Bull Sportswear supplies hundreds of schools, clubs, universities and teams all over the world, and we continue to grow year on year."

"It was a no brainer to partner with such an incredible tournament with teams from all over the world in attendance. I am looking forward to showcase what we can offer as a brand. Excellent customer service, first class designs and high quality garments made in very short lead times here in the UK are just a few of the reasons for the success of the brand."

Raging Bull Sportswear, owned by Halbro Sportswear, who have just celebrated 100 years of business in the school and sportswear market, are looking forward to enhancing the event and building relationships for the future.

Phil Vickery MBE said: "To have our brand partnered with such a successful tournament, rich in history, makes me immensely proud. A tournament that showcases so much talent is a wonderful thing, and something we as a brand are really pleased to be linked with. I am really looking forward to meeting as many staff and students at the 2021 tournament as possible in the Raging Bull Sportswear area."

Andy Higgins, Tournament Director, added: "We highly recommend you get in touch with Raging Bull Sportswear to get your kit early for next year's tournament. They are doing some amazing deals for all of the schools signing up for the 2021 tournament".
