It is fantastic to see so many of our #teamhalbro and #clubragingbull sides back in training. I hope that we are all back playing all the sports that we love as soon as possible.

In the meantime, please check out the previous bulletins we have launched, and the new items and offers we have for you.

We also have some amazing things lined up in the coming weeks at Halbro and Raging Bull Sportswear, all very exciting for everyone, and I cannot wait to share this information with you in the coming bulletins!

Stay safe everyone.

SPOTLIGHT ON:

Wembley
Partners

We (Wembley Partners) were introduced to Andy at the beginning of the summer as we looked to procure a number of clothing items for our staff as well as associates to wear when out doing non-work activities.

As a new start-up firm in Gloucestershire, Andy was very accommodating with helping us understand the process and requirements needed by Raging Bull.

The feedback has been brilliant for us, not only around the quality but the look of the clothing. This has meant that we are looking to acquire a number of other items of clothing, including for our new Canadian Karting Racing Team.

Great work and thank you.
